DESCRIPTION:

This is a 4 credit, proficiency based, introductory level language course designed to simultaneously develop students' skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing Mandarin Chinese. Students will learn the pinyin writing system, character writing system, extensive vocabulary (approximately 3-400 vocabulary), as well as numbers, grammar and sentence structure. Topics include school life, shopping, transportation, weather, dining, asking directions, birthday party and seeing a doctor.

Students will complete the Introduction and Lessons 8-10 of the textbook, Integrated Chinese, Level 1, Part 1, 3rd Edition and Lessons 11-15 of Integrated Chinese, Level 1, Part 2, 3rd Edition, as well as the associated lessons in the workbooks and character workbooks. Regular, punctual, engaged attendance is essential and will be strictly calculated into your grade as explained below.

Class Preparation

Typical Daily Preparation at Home includes:

- (1) Listen to and practice each lesson with the audio cds - available on reserve at the Library (same set of cds used for CHIN 1001 and 1002);
- (2) Read aloud and study the text (including grammar notes);
- (3) Practice writing the new vocabulary, first in the character workbook and then independently;
- (4) Memorize a brief monologue or dialogue for each drill session;
- (5) Complete the lesson assignments in the workbook.

The use of flashcards for vocabulary memorization is highly recommended (an online version may be found at <http://www.yellowbridge.com/language/flashcards.html>). Also helpful are <http://dict.cn/>, <http://www.nciku.com/>, and www.zhongwen.com (though the latter uses traditional characters).

Class Activities

Students will participate in a variety of class activities geared toward language acquisition including, but not limited to, drills, impromptu monologues, text, skits, songs and games as well as discussion of readings and supplementary topics.

Workbook & Characters book

Students are expected to complete the assigned items on the workbook (See the following schedule). The completed workbook will be turned in for grading on each drill session. It is highly recommended that you keep up with the workbook since lesson tests will draw in part on workbook exercises.

Exams, Tests and Quizzes

All tests and quizzes are taken in class and are closed book, closed notes. Vocabulary quizzes are brief and will occur at the beginning of class so be on time or lose the chance to take the quiz. Lesson tests take approximately 50 minutes and will be completed using Chinese characters (for the written part). Quizzes and lesson tests are scheduled below.

Drill & Conversation Session

You are required to attend 5 sessions. These 5 attendances will be factored in your Class Participation grade.

REQUIRED TEXTS:

Supplementary Materials Provided.

EVALUATION:

1. Attendance (10%, -1 for 1 absence) Punctuality & participation (Absence for three times decreases your attendance grade to a lower level, i.e. A→B or B→C etc.. Late for class for three times will be counted as one absence.)
2. Class activities and participation (20%, presentations, classroom activities, skits, participation)
3. Drill and Assignments (10%, 2 points × 5)
4. Vocabulary Quizzes (10%, 1 point × 10)
5. Lesson Quizzes (20%, 5 points × 4)
6. Tests (30% 15 points × 2)

Make-up Policy: Make-up is counted only for excused absences (verifiable illness, job interviews, etc.) and must be completed within one week of return to class. Timely email notification of prearranged absence is expected if you want consideration for make-up. The student is responsible for providing verification and turning in work within this period without prompting by instructor. It is recommended that the student complete all assignments regardless of the status of an absence since assignments contribute to the student's overall skills base. If you have a question, please make sure to address it in advance.

GRADING SCALE: 100—90 A; 89—80 B; 79—70 C; 69—60 D; 59—0 F.

Note: minimum grade for “pass” if taking this class pass/fail is 70 (C).
